Personalised invitations

Let us join forces to ensure the right visitors come to FoodTech 2018 – and to your stand.

All exhibitors receive 200 printed invitations for you to distribute throughout your network. If you have not yet sent your black/white or colour logo (in as high a resolution as possible), please send it to us at foodtech@mch.dk no later than Friday, 21 September.

We are currently sending invitations to print, which means that you will soon receive your printed invitations (We print invitations as the orders come in.)

We will also send you a digital invitation that includes your company name and stand number.

Your digital invitation enables you quickly and easily to send out an e-mail to your network, inviting them to visit your stand.

Technical orders

As an exhibitor, there's a lot you have to remember. For that reason, we have made the job a little easier by creating a checklist that you can download to your calendar, to ensure you receive advance reminders of deadlines.

You will find the checklist in the Exhibitor Manual | Deadlines
